

QUICKSILVER GAS SERVICES LP

QUICKSILVER GAS SERVICES GP LLC
CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

ISSUED BY: Thomas F. Darden, President & CEO

APPROVED BY: Board of Directors

ORIGINAL ISSUE DATE: July 24, 2007

CURRENT REVISION DATE: March 24, 2009

PURPOSE AND STATEMENT OF POLICY

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics describes the basic principles of conduct that we share as officers and employees of Quicksilver Gas Services GP LLC (the “General Partner”), the general partner of Quicksilver Gas Services LP (the “Company”), and its subsidiary companies (including the Company). This Code also applies to our directors and should be provided to and followed by our agents and representatives, including consultants. Violation of this Code may result in disciplinary action, varying from reprimand to dismissal.

This Code is intended to provide a broad overview of basic ethical principles that guide our conduct. In some circumstances, we maintain more specific policies on the topics referred to in this Code. Should you have any questions regarding these policies, please contact our General Counsel.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS

We strive to comply with all laws, rules, and regulations of the places where we do business. If a law, rule, or regulation is unclear, or conflicts with a provision of this Code, you should seek advice from supervisors or our General Counsel, but always seek to act in accordance with the ethical standards described in this Code. In the event that an employee encounters a conflict between the applicable laws of two or more countries, the employee should contact the General Counsel.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

We strive to conduct our business affairs in the best interest of the General Partner and the Company and should therefore avoid situations where our private interests interfere or appear to interfere in any way with the interests of the General Partner or the Company. We need to be especially sensitive to situations that have even the appearance of impropriety and promptly report them to a supervisor, or if appropriate, a more senior manager. If you believe that a transaction, relationship or other circumstance creates or may create a conflict of interest, you should promptly report this concern. Information regarding how to report such a concern is included below in this Code under the heading “Reporting Illegal or Unethical Behavior.” It is our policy that transactions, relationships and circumstances that pose a conflict of interest are prohibited.

RECORD KEEPING

We require honest and accurate recording and reporting of information in order to make responsible business decisions. We document and record our business expenses accurately. Questionable expenses should be discussed with the appropriate personnel in our accounting department.

All of our books, records, accounts, and financial statements are maintained in reasonable detail, appropriately reflect our transactions, and conform both to applicable legal requirements and to our system of internal controls. Unrecorded or "off the books" funds or assets should not be maintained unless permitted by applicable law or regulation.

We avoid exaggeration, derogatory remarks, guesswork, or inappropriate characterizations of people and companies in our business records and communications. We maintain our records according to our record retention policies. In accordance with those policies, in the event of litigation or governmental investigation, please consult our General Counsel.

PUBLIC REPORTING

The Company is a public company and, as a result, files reports and other documents with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the stock exchanges on which Company common units trade. As well, we issue press releases and make other public statements that include financial and other information about the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. We endeavor to make full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents filed with, or submitted to, the SEC on behalf of the Company and in the press releases and public communications regarding the Company.

We require cooperation and open communication with our internal and outside auditors. It is illegal to take any action to fraudulently influence, coerce, manipulate, or mislead any internal or external auditor engaged in the performance of an audit of the Company's financial statements. The laws and regulations applicable to filings made with the SEC, including those applicable to accounting matters, are complex. While the ultimate responsibility for the information included in these reports rests with officers of the General Partner, numerous other individuals participate in the preparation of these reports or provide information included in these reports. We maintain disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that the information included in the reports that we file or submit to the SEC is collected and communicated to officers of the General Partner in order to permit timely disclosure of the required information.

If you are requested to provide, review or certify information in connection with our disclosure controls and procedures, you must provide the requested information or otherwise respond in a full, accurate and timely manner. Moreover, even in the absence of a specific request, you should report any significant information that you believe should be considered for disclosure in the Company's reports to the SEC.

If you have questions or are uncertain as to how our disclosure controls and procedures may apply in a specific circumstance, promptly contact your supervisor or a more senior manager. We want you to ask questions and seek advice. Additional information regarding how to report your questions or concerns (including on a confidential, anonymous basis) is included below in this Code under the heading "Reporting Illegal or Unethical Behavior."

INSIDER TRADING

We do not trade in Company common units on the basis of material, non-public information concerning the Company, nor do we "tip" others who may trade in Company securities.

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES

We do not personally take opportunities that we discover through the use of property of the General Partner or the Company, information or position, and that would reasonably be expected to be of interest to the General Partner or the Company, without the consent of our Board or a committee of our Board or, in the case of individuals other than a director or executive officer of the General Partner, the Compliance Officer. Our directors, officers, and employees are also prohibited from competing with the General Partner or the Company.

COMPETITION AND FAIR DEALING

We outperform our competition fairly and honestly by gathering and processing natural gas including that produced from the Barnett Shale geographic formation of the Fort Worth Basin in north Texas. We endeavor to deal fairly with customers, suppliers, competitors and each other. We do not take unfair advantage of others through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair dealing practices, and we do not engage in unethical or illegal business practices such as stealing proprietary information, obtaining such information without the owner's consent, or inducing disclosure of this type of information by past or present employees of other companies.

BUSINESS ENTERTAINMENT AND GIFTS

We recognize that business entertainment and gifts are meant to create goodwill and sound working relationships, not to gain unfair advantage with customers or suppliers. Neither we nor our family members offer, give, or accept any gift or entertainment unless it: (a) is not a cash gift, (b) is consistent with customary business practices, (c) is not excessive in value, (d) cannot be construed as a bribe or payoff, and (e) does not violate any laws or regulations. Any questionable gift or invitation should be discussed with a supervisor, or, if appropriate, a more senior manager.

DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

The diversity of our employees is a tremendous asset. We provide equal opportunity in all aspects of employment and will not tolerate discrimination or harassment of any kind. Derogatory comments based on racial or ethnic characteristics, unwelcome sexual advances and similar behavior are prohibited.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

We strive to provide a safe and healthful work environment. We ensure a safe and healthy work environment by following safety and health rules and practices and promptly reporting accidents, injuries and unsafe equipment, practices, or conditions to a supervisor or more senior manager.

We do not permit violence or threatening behavior in our workplaces. We report to work in condition to perform our duties at our best, free from the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol. We do not tolerate the use of illegal drugs or alcohol in the workplace.

CONFIDENTIALITY

We protect confidential information. Confidential information includes proprietary information such as trade secrets, patents, trademarks, business forecasts, marketing plans, engineering and geologic plans, ideas, concepts, designs, data and databases, records, salary information, and unpublished financial data and reports, as well as any non-public information that might be of use to competitors or harmful to us or our partners or customers if disclosed. It also includes information that partners and potential partners have entrusted to us on a confidential basis. Our personal obligation not to disclose confidential information continues even after employment ends.

PROTECTION AND PROPER USE OF OUR ASSETS

Theft, carelessness, and waste of our assets have a direct impact on our profitability and should be avoided. Any suspected incident of fraud or theft should be immediately reported to a supervisor or, if appropriate, a more senior manager for investigation. We carefully safeguard our confidential information. Unauthorized use or distribution of confidential information is prohibited and could also be illegal, resulting in civil or even criminal penalties.

PAYMENTS TO GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL

In compliance with the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act we do not give anything of value, directly or indirectly, to officials of foreign governments or foreign political candidates in order to obtain or retain business. We do not promise, offer, or deliver to any foreign or domestic government employee or official any gift, favor, or other gratuity that would be illegal. Our General Counsel can provide guidance in this area.

The laws or customs of other countries in which we operate may be less clear. It is our policy to comply with those laws or customs; however, if a local law or custom seems to contradict the principles described in this Code, contact a supervisor or our General Counsel for guidance.

WAIVERS

Consistent with New York Stock Exchange listing requirements, only our Board or a committee of our Board may waive a provision of this Code for our executive officers or directors, and any waiver must be promptly disclosed to our unitholders. Waivers of this Code for any other employee may be made by the Compliance Officer or by our Board or a committee of our Board.

REPORTING ILLEGAL OR UNETHICAL BEHAVIOR

In order to encourage reports of illegal or unethical behavior (including violations of this Code), we keep all reports confidential and do not allow retaliation for good faith reports of possible misconduct by others. It is also our duty to cooperate in internal investigations of alleged misconduct.

We must all work to ensure prompt and consistent action against unethical or illegal behavior. Oftentimes a violation of this Code will be easy to recognize and should be promptly reported to a supervisor or, if appropriate, a more senior manager. However, in some situations it is difficult to know the appropriate action or response. Since none of us can anticipate every situation that will arise, it is important that we have a way to approach a new or sensitive question or concern. Here are some questions that can be asked:

1. What do I need to know? In order to reach the right solutions, we must be as fully informed as possible.
2. What specifically am I being asked to do? Does it seem unethical or improper? This will focus the inquiry on the specific action in question, and the available alternatives. Use judgment and common sense; if something seems unethical or improper, it probably is.
3. What is my responsibility? In most situations, there is shared responsibility. Should colleagues be informed? It may help to get others involved and discuss the issue.
4. Have I discussed the issue with a supervisor? This is the basic guidance for all situations. In many cases, a supervisor will be more knowledgeable about the question and will appreciate being brought into the decision-making process. Remember that it is the supervisor's responsibility to help solve problems.

5. Should I seek help from management? In the case which it may not be appropriate to discuss an issue with a supervisor, or where you would not be comfortable approaching a supervisor with your question, discuss it with your human resources manager or the Compliance Officer.

If for some reason you do not believe that your concerns have been appropriately addressed, you should seek advice from our General Counsel. Alternatively, we have established procedures to permit confidential, anonymous submissions of concerns regarding alleged violations of this Code, including concerns with respect to questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Please refer to the Whistleblower Policy in the corporate policy and procedure manual for more information as to how to submit a confidential, anonymous concern regarding an alleged violation of this Code.

INTERPRETATION

The Compliance Officer, our Board or any committee of our Board shall have the power and authority to interpret, construe and apply the provisions of this Code both generally and as they apply to any particular potential or actual transaction, relationship or other circumstance. Any such interpretation, construction or application shall be final and binding for all purposes of this Code; provided, however, that any such interpretation, construction or application by the Compliance Officer may be reviewed and altered in any manner by our Board or any committee of our Board. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Code, no potential or actual transaction, relationship or other circumstance determined by our Board or a committee of our Board or, in the case of individuals other than a director or executive officer of the General Partner, the Compliance Officer to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the General Partner or the Company, or otherwise not to interfere with interests of the General Partner or the Company, shall be deemed for purposes of this Code to pose a conflict of interest or to constitute competing with General Partner or the Company.

CONCLUSION

Our good name and reputation depend, to a very large extent, upon you taking personal responsibility for maintaining and adhering to the policies and guidelines set forth in this Code. Your business conduct on behalf of the General Partner and the Company must be guided by the policies and guidelines set forth in this Code.